On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors St. Mirren for this Anglo-Scottish Cup quarter-final second leg.

And immediately let me say that I realise we have a lot to do as we go into this game with a 4-2 deficit from the first leg in Paisley last month.

The Anglo-Scottish Cup has gone from strength to strength as we have found over the years and this is the second time we have reached the final stages of the competition.

A couple of years ago we went out after a two-legged game against Partick Thistle and I have made no secret of the fact that we would like to do better this time.

The Cup is important to us for a couple of reasons. First it gives us the right sort of soccer in our build up to the start of the season.

And second, the teams that qualify get a chance to become involved in two-legged games which can stand them in good stead.

This season the second round of the League Cup became two-legged for the first time and this was another way that teams could find out what this sort of soccer is all about.

In this country we have been very used to sudden death Cup competitions. You get one chance and that's it.

In our League performances recently we have not been playing as well as we can.

These notes were written before our game at Norwich City at the weekend and we were hoping to do well there.

But against Leeds United at Burn-den, after Neil McNab had been sent off, the game emerged as a very exciting affair. I thought we had the chances to have won but in the end we had to be content with a 1-1 draw.

BILLY THOMSON The tall, rangy keeper has made a big impact at Love St. since arriving from Partick Thistle where he was understudy to Scottish Internationalist Alan Rough. The Scottish under-21 International has superb reflexes and will play a significant part in Saints bid for Premier League honours this season.

ALEX BECKETT The tough tackling back is a firm favourite with Love St. supporters. A tireless worker, Alex likes to attack. Signed from Falkirk.

IAIN MUNRO One of Scotland's classiest defenders, Iain made a big impact when he made his senior International debut last season. A versatile player, Iain has unmatched confidence and style. Rejoined the Paisley Club after spells with Rangers and Hibs.

LEX RICHARDSON The powerful midfield player has taken over Tony Fitzpatrick's role since he moved to Bristol City. A cavalier, wholehearted player, Richardson has figured prominently in Love Street plans since joining from Junior side Arthurlie.

ANDY DUNLOP Now one of the best young Centre-halves in Scotland, Andy has never looked back since taking over the No. 5 jersey from injured Bobby Reid. Strong and powerful, Andy is another in the long line of excellent Paisley No. 5's.

JOHN DEMPSTER Saints new signing from Queen of the South is a fast, dangerous winger with excellent crossing skills. Gives Saints more attack power.

BILLY STARK One of Scotland's best young midfield players, Billy gives the Paisley engine-room much flair. A product of Glasgow juvenile side Anniesland Waverley, Billy is a key player in Saints development plans.

DOUG SOMNER The burly former Partick Thistle striker won praise from Saints supporters for his league debut match against Kilmarnock. Powerful in air and on ground, Doug will be a considerable asset to Saints this season.

FRANK McDOUGALL The Paisley side's record signing from First Division side Clydebank is a prolific scorer and Saints hope to turn these skills to their advantage. The aggressive striker will form a double spearhead with Somner in Saints league campaign.

BILLY ABERCROMBY The talented midfield star has broken through to under-21 International spotlight after a series of excellent displays for Saints last season. Despite his slim build, Billy is a strong, aggressive player.

ROBERT TORRANCE The former schoolboy International has hit the goal trail with a vengeance this season. The powerful striker has been a prolific scorer since joining the Paisley Club. An under-21 International with a big future.

JOHN YOUNG The tough tackling defender is a considerable asset to the Paisley Club. A big hearted player, John is a versatile player who gives 100% effort. Signed from Falkirk.

Saints . . .

It took St. Mirren just 45 seconds to hit the net in the first leg of this Anglo Scottish Cup quarter final tie a fortnight ago. Within 26 minutes they had gone 4-0 up and when Wanderers lost the services of Len Cantello three minutes later when he was sent off, they looked in desperate straits.

But a fighting comeback, with goals from Frank Worthington and Taduesz Nowak put Wanderers right back into it, giving themselves more than a fighting chance in tonight's home leg.

At the end, the St. Mirren supporters were relieved to hear the whistle for full-time as Wanderers looked more and more capable of snatching a third and possibly a fourth goal.

The game showed quite clearly that the standard of the Scottish Premier League teams can well be compared with our own First Division sides in terms of competitive match practice, the Anglo-Scottish competition has once again proved valuable to the Wanderers.

Again this season, manager Ian Greaves chose to enter the competition instead of taking the team on a pre-season continental tour. The format of the Anglo-Scottish Cup is such that English teams play-off on a league basis and since Wanderers beat Oldham and Sunderland and drew with Bury to finish top of their group, they went on to the quarter-finals.

The first leg was an exciting tie, featuring some excellent football from the Saints.

The Love Street crowd had not enjoyed the best of starts to their League programme, but went into the game with their first League victory under their belts.

They opened in brilliant fashion with new striker Frank McDougall in devastating form. He joined the Paisley club from Clydebank in the close season replacing ace-marksman Frank McGarvey who left Scotland to join League Champions Liverpool.

McDougall's form has suggested that McGarvey will not be missed and his form against Wanderers showed why he is Scottish football's costliest player at £180,000.

But it is not just attack where St. Mirren have flair. At left full-back they have a true class player in Iain Munro. A hard-tackling full-back with a liking to attack on the left wing Munro has earned immense respect in the Scottish game and his talents have been rewarded with international caps against Argentina and Peru.

In midfield St. Mirren have another new signing—Doug Somner, the leading goal scorer for Partick Thistle last season. He and Lex Richardson are two well talented players.

St. Mirren are managed by Jim Clunie well known in English football, having had spells with Bury and Southampton. After his side's first leg win, he said he didn't underestimate his side's task in the return game. He had seen enough in Bolton's performance to know what they are capable of. Tonight's game promises to be an exciting tussle.

If the scores are level after normal time tonight, the teams will play 15 minutes each way extra time. If the scores remain level then away goals will count double.

Another English League club seeking success in the Anglo-Scottish Cup this season is Bristol City who drew 1-1 at Partick Thistle a fortnight ago in their first leg tie.

Wanderers fans may like to know that former Bolton player Alan Hay was at full-back for Bristol that day and was in quite brilliant form. Alan has shown fine form since joining the Ashton Gate Club, enjoying another fine run in the competition.
